MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Cornerstone Laying Ceremony Invitation to George V. Allen

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. An aide to George V. Allen called [redacted] Staff to ask why Mr. George V. Allen had not received an invitation to the cornerstone laying ceremony. The aide said that Mr. Allen had received a special delivery letter the night before the ceremony. [redacted] queried us and on checking we found that an invitation had been mailed to Mr. and Mrs. Allen at their home address, [redacted] Washington, D. C., on 21 October. We have no record in this office of any special delivery letter at a later date nor were any blue tickets sent to Mr. Allen by us. This information was given to [redacted] office.
